Conditions of Renting

3 of 3

1- Renting from Saturday arrival 15h00 to Saturday, departure 11h.

2- It is understood that if the renter cancels :

- More than 4 weeks before the rental period, the renter surrenders their deposit.
- Less than 4 weeks before the rental period, the renter has to pay the outstanding sum, equivalent to the total sum of the rent due, as a penalty. - If we can re-rent you are reimbursed in all cases (less last minute advertising fees)

3- It is understood that if the owner cancels:

-In the 7 days following the cancellation he must pay double the deposit to the potential renter

4- It is understood that the renter is personally responsible for the Gite and its upkeep. When you arrive you have time to settle in and check the contents of the Gite.

5- All equipment is in working order and you must report any malfunction within 24h hours of entering the gite.

6- It is for everyone to ensure the tranquillity of the neighbourhood.

7- The gite is rented with all kitchen equipment, plates/knives/forks etc, cups/saucers, glasses, sheets/pillowcases, blankets/duvets (description in gite). If they have reason the owner or his representative have the right to claim the price of cleaning the premises from the renters, (fixed forfeit of 40 euros), the total price for replacing objects, furniture or other damage where it is deemed more than fair wear and tear for the rental period, We demand that a breakages deposit (160 euros) must be left with the owner when the keys are collected. It will be returned at the end of the rental period (less any deductions) unless the renter has already replaced the object(s) concerned.

8- Renters are normally covered by their home insurance; it is their obligation to ensure they have adequate holiday cover. (For last minute cancellations, travel problems, illness or loss of baggage etc.)

9- The owner has also to ensure he has adequate third party coverall problems must be reported within 24h.

10- The renter is obliged to allow access to the gite for the owner or his representative, if he has made an appointment.
